School of Business Mentor Program

You are invited to get involved in a life empowering event.

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS MENTOR PROGRAM

We will arrange a match with a Business Professional and yourself.

The Purpose:

Gain wisdom from Christian Business people that have been where you are.

The Features:

Meet one-on-one with a mentor with the same interests as you. Meet Monthly with your Mentor during the school year. Optional two-year relationship if you wish to extend. Opening and Closing Breakfast to assist relationship building. Get Applied Knowledge to balance theory.

The Benefits:

Gain wisdom - Hear the War Stories from those in the trenches. Develop a potential long term relationship that could benefit you for years. Expand your personal network. Get your questions answered. Find out what the questions are. Safe way to grow... Mentors are there for you~ not to evaluate you!

Applications:

Applications can be picked up in the School of Business Office or by going online <http://www.twu.ca/academics/business/features/mentor/student-application.pdf> and printing up application. Completed applications are to be handed into Darlene Hahn, School of Business.

If you have any questions about this exciting program, please contact Doug Lindsay, Corporate Programs Director.

Vancouver 2010 Olympic Work Experience Coca-Cola Product Merchandisers

Coca-Cola, the longest running sponsor of the Olympic games is very excited to offer 10-15 Trinity Western University students a once-in-a-lifetime experience to join the Coca-Cola 2010 Venue Operations Team, working alongside Coca-Cola associates from Great Britain, Russia, and the United States, as Product Merchandisers.

The Opportunity:

The position involves product handling, some minor lifting of cases, and product and brand merchandising.

The position will provide exposure to sales, marketing and event management execution at one of the largest events in the world.

Expectations

- 10-15 Students would participate in 2.5 days of training in Richmond on Jan 30, 31, Feb 1. No pay for training days.
- Students would work at 2-4 days of "product load-in" times. Likely dates Feb 2-4. Pay rate $160 per day.
- Students would work as Product Merchandiser for minimum 2 days during the Olympics (Feb. 12-28) guaranteed. Some or all of the students may be needed for the entire Olympics. Pay rate $160 per day.
- Students may be required for the Para-Olympics (Mar. 10-21) as well. Pay Rate $160 per day.

5 things you need to know about the experience

1. Training must be completed in order for the work experience to be fulfilled
2. Uniform provided
3. Salary will be provided for the work experience
4. Flexibility required regarding hours of work and scheduling
5. Extensive lifting of product is required but provided you are in good health you will be able to complete your assigned responsibilities

Be ready for the experience of a lifetime; bring a flexible work approach; expect long hours and hard work, and live Olympic PASSION everyday!

Selection Criteria

Fulfill all security clearances for Olympic accreditation; availability to perform role; interpersonal and communication skills; dedication and commitment, and PASSION and SPIRIT around Olympics. These opportunities are for 3rd and 4th year students studying Business or Human Kinetics.

How to Apply – Deadline for submission September 16th, 2009

Applications can be picked up at the School of Business & School of Human Kinetics Office and resumes must be submitted via email to Andrea Soberg for Business Students (andreas@twu.ca) and to Blair Whitmarsh for Human Kinetics Students (whitmars@twu.ca).
