THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS MENTOR PROGRAM

OPENING LUNCHEON—OCTOBER 29, 2009

We will arrange a match with a Business Professional and yourself.

The Purpose:

Gain wisdom from Christian Business people that have been where you are.

The Features:

Meet one-on-one with a mentor with the same interests as you. Meet Monthly with your Mentor during the school year. Optional two-year relationship if you wish to extend. Opening and Closing Breakfast to assist relationship building. Get Applied Knowledge to balance theory.

The Benefits:

Gain wisdom - Hear the War Stories from those in the trenches. Develop a potential long term relationship that could benefit you for years. Expand your personal network. Get your questions answered. Find out what the questions are. Safe way to grow... Mentors are there for you-- not to evaluate you!

Applications:

Applications can be picked up in the School of Business Office or by going online <http://www.twu.ca/academics/business/features/mentor/student-application.pdf> and printing up application. Completed applications are to be handed into Darlene Hahn, School of Business.

If you have any questions about this exciting program, please contact Doug Lindsay,
Corporate Programs Director.

The Micro Financing Group Presents Peter Ondeng—a Kenyan Entrepreneur (website=<https://peteondeng.com/>)

The Micro Financing Group is pleased to welcome Pete Ondeng. He is a Kenyan entrepreneur and specialist in economic development. Pete on the forefront of the battle against poverty and is coming to Trinity Western. Come to Block Hall on Oct. 20th at 1:10 to hear a great speaker, and even ask some of your own questions.

Date: Tuesday, October 20th

Time: 1:10 p.m.

Location: Block Hall

Pete Ondeng is an economic development specialist with twenty five years of professional experience in the fields of financial services, small and medium enterprise (SME) development and organizational leadership. He qualified as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in 1984 in the U.S. where he began his career as an internal auditor for McDonalds Corporation. Since then, he has served in leadership positions for a number of private and public sector organizations in over 15 countries.

At present, he heads the Africa operations of MYC4, a web-based market platform linking global investors with business opportunities in Africa, focusing on small and medium enterprises. Prior to that, he was the Africa Regional Director for Millennium Promise, a New York based non-profit organization dedicated to the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs).

The Centre for Entrepreneurial Leaders (CEL) and the School of Business will be hosting a Speaker Series on Entrepreneurship.

Dr. Rick Goossen, Director of the CEL, will start the evening outlining the results of the research he has been conducting on Christian Entrepreneurs.

Key Note Address: Clive Mather

Clive Mather, past President and CEO of Shell Canada Ltd., has a portfolio of non executive roles that reflect his personal interests and passion for leadership. He is the Chairman of Tearfund, the international Christian charity combating global poverty. He is also Chairman of Iogen Corporation, a leading Canadian bio-tech company that produces cellulosic ethanol - a carbon neutral, renewable transport fuel from corn straw.

He has lived and worked in many parts of the world, including Brunei, Gabon, the Netherlands, UK, North and South America. While in Canada he took a high profile on environmental matters, presenting the business case to promote sustainable development.

Mr. Mather will be presenting on Corporate Entrepreneurship.
