

TRINITY WESTERN UNIVERSITY

Audited Financial Statements for the year ended April 30, 2013

As has been our practice for many years, and in keeping with our value of building trust through financial transparency, we are pleased to provide public access to our financial statements. For many years, the University has been audited by Deloitte, one of the world's four largest professional services firms. We are pleased to report that again this year Deloitte has provided an unqualified audit opinion (or "clean audit opinion") on the University's financial statements.

Accounting standards have recently changed to create more consistent reporting across industries. Canadian businesses and not-for-profit organizations are now required to adopt either the international reporting standard, IFRS, or another accounting standard appropriate for their enterprise. The attached financial statements are the first for which the University has applied the recently updated Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Note 2 in our financial statements provides additional information about the impact of adopting Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. For TWU, there are two major impacts:

1. Our land and buildings have been revalued to fair market value as at May 1, 2011 (a date dictated by the standards), creating an increase in Capital Assets and a Capital Fund balance of $84,442,063 on May 1, 2011.
2. An increase in annual depreciation costs of $1,689,481 in the fiscal year ended April 30, 2012.

The values of the lands and buildings were appraised by internationally-recognized independent appraisers, Colliers, and reviewed by Deloitte. In the interest of full disclosure, we have previously shown the value of the land and buildings in the notes to our financial statements. Now these values are recognized within the statements themselves. Prior years have been restated to allow for full comparability.

We are also pleased to draw your attention to the fact that the University reduced long-term debt by $1,799,525. It is our intention to continue to systematically pay down this debt over time.

These results are the work of the hundreds of dedicated faculty and staff and the contributions of the worldwide TWU community. We are grateful for your partnership with TWU over the past year. Your prayers and financial support are enabling the University to continue to build financial strength. Should you ever wish to discuss the finances of the University, please feel free to contact either Derek Dawson, Senior Vice President of Business Affairs (derek.dawson@twu.ca) or Jim Poulsen, VP Finance (poulsen@twu.ca). I know that they would be pleased to assist you.

Sincerely,

ROBERT G. KUHN, J.D.

President

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Trinity Western University, which comprise the statements of financial position as at April 30, 2013, April 30, 2012, and May 1, 2011, and the statements of operations and changes in fund balances and cash flows for the years ended April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained in our audits is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Trinity Western University as at April 30, 2013, April 30, 2012 and May 1, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012 in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Notes to financial statements

April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012

1. Business operations

Purpose and authority

The mission of Trinity Western University, as an arm of the Church, is to develop godly Christian leaders: positive, goal-oriented university graduates with thoroughly Christian minds; growing disciples of Jesus Christ who glorify God through fulfilling the Great Commission, serving God and people in the marketplaces of life.

Established in 1962, Trinity Western University ("TWU", the "University") operates under the authority of the Trinity Western University Act of the Province of British Columbia. TWU is a Christian liberal arts and sciences university offering undergraduate, graduate and continuing education programs. TWU is a not-for-profit entity, governed by a Board of Governors. TWU is a registered charity and is therefore exempt from income taxes under section 149 of the Canadian Income Tax Act and section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in the United States of America.

2. Adoption of new accounting framework

Adoption of accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations

The University was required to adopt Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. These financial statements are the first financial statements for which the University has applied Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

The financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012 were prepared in accordance with the accounting principles and provisions set out in Section 1501, First-time Adoption by Not-for-Profit Organizations, for first-time adopters of this basis of accounting.

The impact of adopting these standards was accounted for in fund balances at the date of transition, May 1, 2011. As described below, the University has elected to adopt the exemption available under Section 1501 relating to the fair value of capital assets and has re-valued land and buildings at May 1, 2011.

2. Adoption of new accounting framework (continued)

Financial statement impact on transition

The impact of the adoption of the new standards on the statement of financial position items as at May 1, 2011 is summarized as follows:

	Balance previously reported April 30, 2011	Adjustments	Reference	Balance as adjusted May 1, 2011

The impact of the adoption of the new standards on the statement of financial position items as at April 30, 2012 is summarized as follows:

Financial statement impact on transition (continued)

The impact of the adoption of the new standards on the statement of operations and changes in fund balances for the year ended April 30, 2012 is summarized as follows:

	Balance previously reported April 30, 2012	Adjustment	Reference	Balance as adjusted April 30, 2012
	$	$		$
Expenditures
Amortization	3,268,760	1,689,481	(a)	4,958,241
Excess (deficiency) of revenue over expenditures	3,268,760	1,689,481		4,958,241

The new standards require separate disclosure of the amount of government remittances payable. See Note 9 for details.

Explanation of adjustment

a) Capital assets

The University has applied one of the elections provided in Section 1501 and has elected to measure its land and buildings at its fair value as at May 1, 2011. This fair value becomes the deemed cost of the land and buildings. The adjustment of $84,442,063 as at May 1, 2011 represents the difference between the fair value and its previous carrying amount. The adjustment of $1,689,481 to amortization of capital assets for the year ended April 31, 2012 represents the difference in amortization resulting from this change.

3. Significant accounting policies

These financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and include the following significant policies:

Fund accounting

TWU accounts provide for separate fund balances to be maintained at various times in order to recognize restrictions imposed on the use of available resources. The Statements of Financial Position and Cash Flows combine the assets and liabilities of all funds. The Statement of Operations and Fund Balances segregates the Unrestricted, Capital, Specific Purpose and Endowment funds.

TWU follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions.

The Unrestricted Fund reports on TWU's program delivery, administrative and ancillary activities.

The Capital Fund reports the net investment in capital assets.

The Specific Purpose Fund reports funds received but not yet expended for specific projects.

Trinity Western University

Notes to financial statements

April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012

3. Significant accounting policies (continued)

The Endowment Fund reports donations received to be held permanently, the income of which is to be used primarily for scholarships. Realized investment gains and losses from the Endowment Fund are reported in the Unrestricted Fund, unless restricted by the donor.

Ancillaries include Housing Services, Dining Services, Conference Services, University Bookstore and Trinity Western University's English as a Second Language (ESL) program. Compensation expenses for Ancillaries are included in the compensation line of the Unrestricted Fund.

Controlled not-for-profit organizations

The University does not consolidate controlled not-for-profit organizations into its financial statements. Information on controlled not-for-profit organizations is disclosed in Note 4.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognized at fair value when the University becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. Subsequently, all financial instruments are measured at amortized cost except for investments which are measured at fair value at the balance sheet date.

Transaction costs related to financial instruments measured at fair value are expensed as incurred. Transaction costs related to the financial instruments that are measured at amortized cost are added to the carrying value of the asset or netted against the carrying value of the liability and are then recognized over the expected life of the instrument using the straight line method. Any premium or discount related to an instrument measured at amortized cost is amortized over the expected life of the item using the straight-line method and recognized in net income as interest income or expense.

With respect to financial assets measured at cost or amortized cost, the University recognizes in net income an impairment loss, if any, when it determines that a significant adverse change has occurred during the period in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows. When the extent of impairment of a previously written-down asset decreases and the decrease can be related to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss shall be reversed in net income in the period the reversal occurs.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and short term investments with a term to maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition.

Revenue recognition

Tuition, fees and Ancillaries are recognized as revenue at the time the goods are delivered or the services are provided.

Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue of one of the restricted funds in the year received or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Trinity Western University

Notes to financial statements

April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the Unrestricted Fund in the year received or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Contributions subject to internal restrictions are allocated to the appropriate restricted fund through an inter-fund transfer.

As of April 30, 2013 there are pledges totalling $99,520 included in accounts receivable (April 30, 2012 – $nil, May 1, 2011 - $1,102,000). During the year, $99,510 (2012 - $nil) was recognized in revenue.

Endowment donations are recognized as revenue in the Endowment Fund.

The sources of donation revenues described above are individuals and corporations.

Gifts in kind are recorded at fair market value on the date of their donation, or at nominal value when fair market value cannot be reasonably determined. Donated services are not recognized in these financial statements.

Other income is recognized in the year received or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Inventory

Inventory is comprised of items held for resale by the University Bookstore and is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on the average cost basis. Net realizable value is the selling price less the cost necessary to make the sale. During the year the University expensed $1,144,161 (2012 - $1,155,587) of inventory through Ancillaries on the statement of operations and fund balances.

Capital assets

Purchased capital assets are recorded at cost. Contributed capital assets are recorded at their fair market value on the date of the contribution. No amortization is taken in the year of acquisition and a full year of amortization is taken in the year of disposal. Amortization is provided using the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets as follows:

Buildings, roads and parking lots	8-40 years
Furniture and equipment	10 years
Library collection	10 years
Computers	3 - 7 years
Vehicles	5 years

An impairment loss is recognized in capital assets when the asset no longer has any long-term service potential to the organization. The amount of the impairment loss is determined as the excess of its net carrying amount over any residual value and will be recognized in the statement of operations.

Other asset

Other asset is recorded at cost and is amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related agreement.

Trinity Western University

Notes to financial statements

April 30, 2013 and April 30, 2012

3. Significant accounting policies (continued)

Assets under capital lease

Assets under capital lease are accounted for at cost. Amortization is provided using the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets, which is 3 years. Amortization is provided using the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets as follows:

Asset retirement obligations

Legal obligations related to asset retirement obligations are recognized when a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made. These obligations are recorded at fair value with a corresponding increase in asset value. The liability is accreted over the life of the asset to fair value and the increase in asset value is depreciated over the remaining useful life of the asset. This includes future removal and site restoration costs as required due to environmental law or contract. Management has determined that the University has no asset retirement obligations at April 30, 2013.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Key areas of estimation, as a result of matters that are inherently uncertain, include the provision for doubtful accounts in respect of receivables, the fair value of the private company shares, impairment of long-lived assets, the useful lives of capital assets, accrued liabilities, and liabilities under legal contingencies. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Canadian University Reciprocal Insurance Exchange

Since 1988 Trinity Western University has been a member of the Canadian University Reciprocal Insurance Exchange (C.U.R.I.E), a self-insurance co-operative providing property and general liability insurance coverage to 58 university subscribers in Canada.

Under this co-operative arrangement, the University participates in the periodic return of excess premiums and shares in any losses realized by C.U.R.I.E., in proportion to its participation in C.U.R.I.E. For the current fiscal year, there was a return of $23,334 related to the return of excess premiums; there are no anticipated member assessments in the near future based on C.U.R.I.E.'s current financial position.

15. Contingent liabilities (continued)

The University is in negotiations with the Township of Langley with regards to the settlement of certain costs payable to the University and payable by the University. The University believes these negotiations will be resolved in the next year but the settlement cannot be reasonably estimated at this time and no provision has been made.

Canada Institute of Linguistics (CANIL) ground lease

The University has entered into a ground lease that allows CANIL to construct and occupy a building on University lands for a period of 35 years with four tenant renewal options of five years each. Under the terms of the arrangement, CANIL may vacate the premises at any time and require TWU to purchase its interest in the building according to a reducing balance formula. At April 30, 2013 the amount calculated under the formula was approximately $1,783,048. At the end of the lease term, including all renewals, title and ownership of the building will pass to the University.

16. Retirement plans

Trinity Western University makes a defined contribution to registered retirement plans for employees. Both the employee and employer portions vest immediately. Employees have full discretion to invest the funds within the University sponsored program. During the year the University contributed $944,271 (2012 - $866,425) to employee retirement plans. The fair market value of the assets owned by employees in the University sponsored program at April 30, 2013 was $22,439,384 (April 30, 2012 - $19,866,981, May 1, 2011 $19,756,969). 20. Capital disclosures

The University's capital consists of restricted capital, special purpose and endowment funds, unrestricted funds and long-term debt, as shown on the Statement of Financial Position.

The University manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and working capital requirements. The University has adopted prudent investment and budgetary policies with the goal of maintaining liquidity and earning a sustainable return on capital. These policies are designed to enable the University to meet its obligations as they fall due, fund its capital and special purpose funds, and build long-term financial stability. In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the University prepares annual budgets and multi-year financial plans that are updated as necessary for review with the Board of Governors.

Under the terms of the HSBC long-term debt agreements, the University must satisfy restrictive covenants. The University satisfied those debt covenants as at April 30, 2013.

21. Financial instruments

Fair values

The carrying values of cash and restricted cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate their fair values due to their liquidity and short-term maturity. Interest on long-term debt is based on prime and therefore the carrying value approximates the fair value.

The fair value of the marketable securities included in Note 6 is based on quoted market prices. The fair value of the private company shares was determined by review of the historical net income and dividend payments and the ability of the company to sustain or increase those amounts.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The University is subject to interest rate cash flow risk with respect to its floating rate debt. When interest rate risk exposure is considered significant, the University manages this risk by entering into interest rate swap agreements that fix the interest rates over the term of the corresponding obligation. In April 2013, the university entered into $6,400,000 of swap agreements with a start date of May 14, 2013.

21. Financial instruments (continued)

Currency and credit risk

Due to the nature of revenue as well as the amount of revenue which is received in advance of services being provided, the University is not exposed to significant currency or credit risks arising from its financial instruments. The allowance for doubtful accounts balance at April 30, 2013 was $47,000 (April 30, 2012 - $47,000, May 1, 2011 - $66,100).

Liquidity risk

The University's objective is to have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due. The University monitors its cash balances and cash flows generated from operations to meet its requirements. As at April 30, 2013, April 30, 2012 and May 1, 2011, the most significant financial liabilities are: accounts payable and accrued liabilities, capital lease obligations and long-term debt.
