Trinity Western University Travel Studies

TRINITY WESTERN UNIVERSITY

Experience the land down under through sport.

WITH ITS DIVERSE LANDSCAPE AND MULTI-CULTURAL CITIES, AUSTRALIA offers a unique travel experience for the sports enthusiast. After all, the Australians' love of sport borders on a national obsession. Trip highlights include: Australian football league matches, a professional netball match, and a rugby match; tours of the Olympic Games Facilities in Sydney and the Commonwealth Games facilities in Melbourne; a lecture with Australian sport experts (coaches, athletes, and professors); a visit to the Australian Institute of Sport; and sightseeing trips to the Gold Coast, Sydney Opera House, Sydney Bridge, and Manly Beach.

COURSES

HKIN 325 · Sociocultural Aspects of Sport

This course is an examination of the sociological and cultural dynamics of sport and the way that sport has become a socializing agent of society and culture. North American society is constantly being affected by sport and leisure in either central or secondary ways. The course provides an examination and comparison of the sociological and cultural dynamics of sport and leisure between England, France and North America. Instructional experiences will consist of lectures and group discussions, special guest lectures, visits to sport sites, athletic training centers, sport events, and personal journaling. Prerequisite(s): HKIN 195 and 2nd year standing or instructor permission.

HKIN 340/PSYC 360 · Sports Psychology

The need for and purpose of psychology in sport and physical activity. An examination of the research focusing on psychological and social psychological factors influencing athletic and motor performance. Students will meet with Australian sport experts and sport psychologists in different cities. Prerequisites: Third year standing or instructor permission.

HKIN 351 · Leadership and Management in Human Kinetics

An applied study of leadership, including planning, supervisory skills, and responsibilities related to instructional/intramural-recreational and intercollegiate human kinetics and sport programs. Prerequisite(s): Third year standing.

FNDN 201 · Ideas That Inspire

A "big question" launches students into foundational inquiries from various disciplines and perspectives. The instructor provides an overview and background for each prompt and highlights the method of inquiry. Building on this, students work together with the guidance of the instructor to explore, discuss, and analyze documents, speeches, artifacts, performances, and arts (ancient through contemporary) that create an intersection of voices. Students develop their own conclusions on the answer to the central question. Prerequisite(s): None.
