

TRINITY WESTERN UNIVERSITY

TRAVEL STUDY TO

EUROPE

PSYCHOLOGY - MAY 2020

Freud, Adler, Jung, and Frankl: their European haunts, histories, and influence.

Travel to the European destinations of Vienna, Muenchen, Dachau, Schwangau, Zurich, and London to learn about the history and setting of Freudian, Jungian, Adlerian, and Frankl's psychological theories.

Along with Germany and Vienna, this year we will also be travelling to Austria, Switzerland & England. Join us for an incredible trip to these historically rich destinations.

CONTACT: Chuck MacKnee
macknee@twu.ca
604.513.2043
WWW.TWU.CA/TRAVEL

ACTIVITIES AND HIGHLIGHTS

1. Tour historical sites and the Alps, and discover psychology's origins and evolution.
2. Visit museums, Jewish quarters, psychological institutes, Nazi concentration camps, castles, and art galleries—and learn from disciples and relatives of the European psychologists.
3. Discover how anti-Semitic issues effected their theories and the European perspective on psychology.

COURSES

PSYC 390 TR EUROPEAN PSYCHOLOGISTS

This course explores the zeitgeist and environments of Freud, Adler, Frankl, and Jung to discover how the intellectual, political, social, economic, and religious climate of their time influenced their theories. Anti-Semitic influences will also be examined.

PREREQUISITES: PSYC 301 or permission of instructor.

PSYC 408 TR HISTORY AND SYSTEMS OF PSYCHOLOGY

Historical roots of modern psychology. Major systems of thought within the discipline in the context of a Christian view on humans and the world. PREREQUISITES: PSYC 105, 106; plus 18 additional sem. hrs. of Psychology.

FNDN 201 IN PROCESS OF CONFIRMING ACCREDITATION

INSTRUCTORS

CHUCK MACKNEE, Ph.D.

Professor Chuck MacKnee has been teaching undergraduate psychology courses full time since 1984 and at Trinity Western University since 1989. As a psychotherapist, as well as psychology professor, he is especially interested in understanding personality, the integration of spirituality in life and therapy, and sexuality and spirituality.

Chuck enjoys travelling with his wife on retreat and travel study courses, where they can connect with students on more than just academic levels. He engages adventure, sports, and music, and tries to keep up with his three adult children and five grandchildren.