

Graduate Valedictorian Eligibility Qualifications: A nominee may be any student who is an exemplary representative of the TWU graduate student body. The candidate will embody excellence in scholarship and academic record, the ability to present themselves well in public speaking, and a proven ability to represent the place of their Christian faith in the formation of the life and career, especially during their time here at TWU.

For the Spring 2022 convocation ceremony, graduate programs must submit this form to the Graduate Studies Coordinator by: March 18.

GRADUATE VALEDICTORIAN NOMINEE

Table with 2 columns and 3 rows for nominee information: Student Name, Student ID#, Student Email, Program, and GPA.

PROGRAM RECOMMENDATION

checkbox A detailed memo from the Dean or Program Director, which outlines the nominee’s eligibility qualifications as described above, is attached.

As Dean and Program Director of the above-listed graduate program, we have reviewed the above referenced student’s records and recommend the student for consideration as the Graduate Valedictorian at the spring commencement ceremony.

Signature lines for Name of Dean, Signature, Date, Name of Program Director, Signature, Date.