“George
Grant:

Canada’s C.S.
Lewis.”

George Grant (1918-1988), philosopher and political commentator, was one of Canada’s foremost public intellectuals. Grant, when at Oxford, participated in the Socratic Club that Lewis was the guiding light of and Grant often mentioned his time with Lewis and the Socratic Club as formative in his faith journey. This presentation will highlight how and why Grant should be read as the C.S. Lewis of Canada.
