

Nursing Networking Cafe

Self-Care for Professionals Experiencing Burnout and Secondary Trauma

November 26, 2013

Trinity Western University School of Nursing is hosting a series of Nursing Networking Cafés

6:45 - 8:30 PM

*for nurses to gather together in a collegial environment to discuss topics of interest. The Cafés are especially appealing to TWU nursing alumni, graduate students, and other nurses in the region who want to be encouraged about the profession of nursing.

Contact:

Dr. Barb Astle

Phone:

604-888-7511 Local 3260

Email:

Barbara.Astle@twu.ca

We hope you can join us!

RSVP:

Guelda.Redman@twu.ca

Please RSVP by:

November 21, 2013

Dr. Maggie J Theron, DCur, MCur, BCur, RN, RPN

Maggie Theron is an instructor in the BSN Nursing Program at the University of the Fraser Valley and holds a casual RN/RPN position at Abbotsford Regional Hospital (ARH) on the General Psychiatric Inpatient Unit, Psychiatric Clinical Decision Unit, and Maternity. She worked previously on the Inpatient Adolescent Unit at ARH. Maggie has extensive experience in undergraduate and post graduate nursing education and worked in various mental health units in both Canada and South Africa. The focus of her Masters & Doctorate degree was on the facilitation of wholeness for therapists who experience secondary trauma. Maggie is currently an adjunct Professor in Nursing at TWU, and involved in both the undergraduate and post graduate programs at TWU. Maggie has presented her research during conferences both in Canada and South Africa.

Location Details

Trinity Western University
Graduate Collegium
7600 Glover Rd.
Langley, BC

Map & Directions

For more information about the Nursing Networking Cafes, please see: www.twu.ca/academics/nursing/nursing-network-cafes.html