Trinity Western University Travel Studies

TRINITY WESTERN UNIVERSITY

Learn firsthand about our Canadian legal system.

ON THIS EXCITING LAW TRIP TO OTTAWA, YOU'LL GET TO STAY in the historic Laurentian Leadership Centre (LLC). You will visit numerous legal sites around the nation's capital, including the Supreme Court of Canada, Parliament, Canadian Intellectual Property Office and others.

This trip will include visits to numerous cultural sites around Ottawa, and will likely include a two-day excursion to Historic Quebec City and a wind-up dinner cruise—the Kingston 1000 Island Cruise.

COURSES

BUSI 245 TR · Foundations of Business Law in Canada

A general overview of business law with specific focus on the law of contracts. Attention is given to offer and acceptance, consideration, assignment, discharge, breach and remedies available at law.

Prerequisites: Second year standing or instructor's consent.

BUSI 346 TR · Law for the Business Manager

This course follows up on BUSI 245 and provides students with the knowledge and skills to manage a number of business areas that have potential legal risk including sale of goods, agency, bailment, insurance and guarantees, negotiable instruments, employment and human rights, intellectual property, real property, mortgages, partnerships, the nature and operations of corporations, credit transactions and government regulation of business.

Prerequisites: BUSI 245

POLS 393 TR · Law, Public Policy, and Cultural Change

The historical and contemporary debate in Canada on what constitutes culture and our contemporary cultural challenges; how Christians interface with that culture and the role of organized religion; Christian critique of culture and the methodologies and perspectives of various entities that seek to influence culture. Students observe firsthand how Canadian culture is formed within the Ottawa setting in their discipline.

POLS 393 will satisfy the IDIS requirement.

It is preferable that BUSI 245 and BUSI 346 not be taken at the same time; however, they may be taken together with instructor permission.
